

AIPPM ? All India Political Parties Meet

AGENDA:

Deliberation on whether 'One Nation, One Election' framework strengthens democratic governance or enables the monopolization of political power.

NIRMAAN MODEL UNITED NATIONS 2026

August 8-9, 2026 | Delhi NCR

Indraja Foundation

BACKGROUND

The All India Political Parties Meet (AIPPM) is a unique deliberative forum simulating Indian parliamentary discourse. Unlike traditional UN committees, AIPPM operates within the framework of Indian political dynamics, requiring delegates to represent specific Indian political parties.

KEY ISSUES TO RESEARCH

1. Constitutional Framework: Articles 83, 85, 172, 174 of the Indian Constitution governing the tenure and dissolution of legislatures.
2. The Kovind Committee: The High-Level Committee on Simultaneous Elections chaired by former President Ram Nath Kovind ? its recommendations and criticisms.
3. Federalism: The impact of simultaneous elections on state autonomy, regional parties, and the federal structure of Indian democracy.
4. Electoral Costs: The economic argument ? costs of conducting frequent elections vs. the democratic value of regular accountability.
5. Anti-Defection Law: The Tenth Schedule and its role in maintaining legislative stability.
6. International Precedents: Countries like South Africa, Sweden, and Indonesia that hold simultaneous elections.

RECOMMENDED READINGS

- Report of the Law Commission of India on Simultaneous Elections (2018)
- Kovind Committee Report on "One Nation, One Election" (2024)
- Election Commission of India Reports
- Bidyut Chakrabarty, "Indian Politics and Society Since Independence" (Latest Edition)
- Granville Austin, "Working a Democratic Constitution"

POSITION PAPER GUIDELINES

Delegates must present:

- Their political party's official stance on simultaneous elections
- Constitutional arguments for or against the proposal
- Impact assessment on regional parties and state governance
- Alternative proposals for electoral reform

RULES OF PROCEDURE

AIPPM follows Indian Parliamentary procedure with adaptations. Expect spirited debate, points of order, and coalition-building exercises.