AGENDA:

Photography, Journalism, Caricature

NIRMAAN MODEL UNITED NATIONS 2026

August 8-9, 2026 | Delhi NCR

Indraja Foundation

BACKGROUND

The International Press (IP) is a unique committee that simulates the role of global media in covering diplomatic proceedings. Delegates will function as journalists, photographers, and caricaturists, covering the events of all committees at Nirmaan MUN 2026.

ROLES

1. Journalists: Write articles, op-eds, and breaking news reports covering committee proceedings. You will interview delegates, attend sessions, and file stories under deadline pressure.
2. Photographers: Document the conference through compelling visual storytelling. Capture candid moments, formal proceedings, and behind-the-scenes action.
3. Caricaturists: Create editorial cartoons and illustrations that capture the essence of debates, satirize political positions, and add visual commentary to the conference narrative.

KEY SKILLS REQUIRED

- Strong writing skills and ability to work under deadline pressure
- Knowledge of journalistic ethics and media law
- Understanding of international affairs and committee agendas
- For photographers: Basic photography skills (DSLR or smartphone)
- For caricaturists: Illustration/sketching ability

DELIVERABLES

- Daily newspaper editions
- Photo essays
- Editorial cartoons
- Social media coverage
- Live reporting from committee sessions

RECOMMENDED READINGS

- AP Stylebook (Latest Edition)
- "The Elements of Journalism" by Bill Kovach and Tom Rosenstiel
- Committee-specific background guides (to inform your reporting)

EVALUATION CRITERIA

- Accuracy and fairness of reporting
- Quality of writing, photography, or illustration
- Timeliness of submissions
- Depth of analysis and insight
- Creativity and originality

NOTE

International Press delegates interact with ALL committees. You are expected to move between committee rooms, conduct interviews, and produce content throughout the conference.
