1. COMMITTEE OVERVIEW

The International Press (IP) simulates global media covering diplomatic proceedings. You will function as journalists, photographers, or caricaturists covering all committees at Nirmaan MUN 2026.

IP FEE: Rs. 1,900/-

ROLES:

JOURNALIST · Write articles, op-eds, breaking news. Interview delegates, attend sessions, file stories under deadline pressure.

PHOTOGRAPHER · Document the conference through visual storytelling. Capture candid moments and formal proceedings.

CARICATURIST · Create editorial cartoons capturing the essence of debates and satirizing political positions.

2. JOURNALISM GUIDELINES

WRITING STANDARDS:

- Follow AP Style guidelines
- Headlines: Active voice, present tense, max 10 words
- Lead paragraph: Answer Who, What, When, Where, Why, How
- Inverted pyramid structure · most important information first
- Attribute all quotes and claims
- Maintain objectivity · present multiple perspectives

ARTICLE TYPES EXPECTED:

- Breaking News reports (200-300 words)
- Feature articles (400-600 words)
- Op-Eds / Analysis pieces (300-500 words)
- Delegate interviews (Q&A format)
- Daily newspaper editions (collaborative)

ETHICS:

- Accuracy over speed · verify before publishing
- Do not fabricate quotes or sources
- Protect off-the-record conversations
- Disclose potential conflicts of interest
- Respect privacy and dignity of all delegates

3. PHOTOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

EQUIPMENT: DSLR, mirrorless, or smartphone cameras are all acceptable.

SHOT LIST:

- Opening/Closing ceremony coverage
- Committee session wide shots and close-ups
- Delegate interactions during unmoderated caucuses
- Speaker/moderator portraits
- Behind-the-scenes candid moments
- Group photos and delegate networking

COMPOSITION TIPS:

- Rule of thirds for dynamic framing
- Capture emotion and gesture, not just faces
- Vary your angles · high, low, eye-level
- Use natural light when possible
- Tell a story with each photo essay (8-12 images per set)

4. CARICATURE GUIDELINES

MATERIALS: Pen/pencil, paper, markers, or digital tablet.

EXPECTATIONS:

- Minimum 3 editorial cartoons per day
- Must reference actual committee proceedings
- Balance humor with substance · satire, not mockery
- Include captions or speech bubbles
- Can incorporate symbolism and metaphor

EVALUATION:

- Relevance to ongoing debates
- Artistic quality and creativity
- Wit and political insight
- Timeliness of submission

5. EVALUATION CRITERIA

ALL IP DELEGATES:

- Accuracy and fairness (25%)
- Quality of output (25%)
- Timeliness (15%)
- Depth of analysis (20%)
- Creativity and originality (15%)

AWARDS:

- Best Journalist
